Paragraph Instruction

Read the paragraph carefully and answer the following questions.

Sometimes, we might feel angry when things don't go our way. It also happens when someone makes us upset. It's okay to feel angry. It's important to learn how to control your anger. One way to do this is by taking deep breaths and counting to ten. This helps us calm down. We should think before we react. We can also try talking about our feelings with a trusted person. We should find positive ways to release our anger. We should try drawing or taking a walk. That could be helpful too. Controlling our anger helps us solve problems peacefully and have better relationships with others.
