Paragraph Instruction

Read the following poem carefully and answer the questions given below.

Though Grandpa was a quiet man, he taught his lessons well.
He showed me ways to understand with stories I still tell.
Hold your head up proudly and wipe that tear out of your eye.
You still can be a winner, but winners never cry.
You've just reached the place in life where winners all begin.
You have to know the taste of loss to savor any win.
If you want to see a rainbow, you'll have to take the rain.
If you want to be successful, you have to take the strain.
